ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

This four-day conference will help individuals and families receive a better understanding of what it means to grow spiritually and help walk in the Orthodox Faith.

The conference will include a cultural component which will showcase the talents of our adults and youth.

ABOUT THE LOCATION

This year's conference will be held at the facilities of Honor's Haven Resort & Spa in Ellenville, NY

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Mrs. Elizabeth Joy,
Past Executive Secretary - Mission Education of Council for World Mission.

Mrs. Joy is an activist and a visionary rooting her convictions and commitments in the Triune God. Her firm faith that is translated into action derives its motivation and inspiration from the contextual theological reflections from the contexts in which the marginalized communities including her experience. The God who stands with the underside in History, who is witnessed to by generations of those that have tasted and experienced God's hand in partnership with people who thirst for righteousness, justice and peace constantly and continuously sustains her. She has been able to demonstrate in and through her work that it is possible, though difficult, to bring about a positive change through strategic planning, creative -thinking outside the framework and parameters of accepted norms when required.

Her Commitment is to a vision that believes in the possibility of building a new world with justice, peace and harmony. This compels her to be engaged in acts of liberation and transformation. She believe that she has accomplished this at different levels in different places with an emphasis on intellectual enterprises, Education, passionate Mission that enables her to live out the Gospel and communitarian team work.

'A participant in God's Mission'.
